CONSCIOUS DATING: 2-ATTRACTION

Attraction Workshop

PROGRAM

Attraction workshop is based on the program of Conscious Dating where Self-Discovery and Readiness is the foundation and attraction is the real implementation in the real world.

The “Attraction” stage provides the tools, information, and support needed to put into practice what you have learned about yourself, and will help you develop and execute your “Attraction Plan” so you can find the love you deserve. Attracting your ideal partner requires planning, awareness, recognizing the opportunities, and taking the actions that support your goals. In this program you will develop a comprehensive plan and strategies for attracting your ideal mate.

In a workshop, attraction is far more interesting and close to reality when sharing insights, thoughts, concerns and learning with fellows on the same path. This allows for more practice and facilitates ease when facing the real world. Role plays are a vital part of the workshop that builds confidence and self-esteem.
